

CTY Information Session

As part of the Johns Hopkins University, Center for Talented Youth (CTY) conducts the oldest and most extensive university-based Talent Search worldwide. For qualified academically advanced students, CTY offers challenging summer and online courses and family academic programs.

- Expose students to above-grade-level testing in a “low-stakes” setting
- Assess a student’s high academic talents and/or reveal previously unrecognized abilities
- Build a foundation for stronger academic and study skills
- Focus educational planning and decision-making
- Meet students and parents who share a similar interest in learning
- Be recognized for academic excellence

Meet us and find out more at King George V School (KGV):

Date: September 12, 2016 (Monday)

Time: 3:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Venue: Guilford Lecture Theatre

RSVP: https://centerfortalentedyouth.formstack.com/forms/kgv_information_session_rsvp

(Please RSVP on or before September 5)

During the session, we will provide first-hand information about CTY summer and online programs, including their benefits to the students and how to qualify.
