INSPIRING FUTURES

Author Writing Workshop (9-11 years old)

by author K. T. Durham

9-13 April, 2018 (limited spaces only)

About the author

Award-winning author K.T. Durham will be teaching students about creative writing. Kathryn has been working as a Speech and Language Therapist since 2005. She holds a Master's degree in Speech Pathology Studies and a Bachelor's degree in Psychology (Honours) with a minor in Linguistics from the University of Queensland.

Kathryn has always loved books and writing, and in 2009 she completed a creative writing course through the University of Oxford. Having spent parts of her childhood and adolescence shuttling between Australia and Hong Kong, her unique outlook on life as a third-culture individual has inspired many aspects of her two fantasy novels in the series she has created, The Ellanor Chronicles. 'Ellanor and the Search for Organoth Blue Amber' (2014) was an award-winning Finalist at the USA Best Book Awards 2015 and the International Book Awards 2015. Its sequel, 'Ellanor and the Curse on the Nine-Tailed Fox', was published in 2015.

About the Course

With reference to The Ellanor Chronicles, students will

- 🍌 explore the world of fantasy fiction and beyond
- 🍌 learn techniques to write authentically and creatively
- 🍌 craft story-telling skills to produce a sample chapter in four days that would impress any book publisher.
