

Dear Parents,

Information Evening for Prospective KGV Parents

King George V (KGV) School will be holding an Information Evening on Thursday 11th October at 5.30pm. This evening has been designed to give prospective parents a taster of what Year 7 students experience during their first year at KGV School.

The Information Evening will last approximately 45 minutes and during this time, you will hear information on

- Welcome from the School Principal
- Year 7 Experiences
- IB Middle Years Programme Curriculum
- Languages offered at KGV School
- Learning Enhancement Support Programmes
- General Information about KGV School from Heads of Year 7

We will also have a group of Year 7 students joining us for this event. They will be around to talk to parents informally from 5pm and then will give a short formal presentation at 5.30pm.

If you would like to attend this Information Evening, please complete the google form below:
