

What have the Girl Up club done in the library?

In the library, we have created a display shelf full of books which we thought showed brave, kind and considerate women. They cared for others, were visionaries, inspired other women to make a difference and understand that nothing is impossible.

On the shelf, we put books such as:

- I am Malala
- Roller Girl
- Who is Queen Elizabeth
- Breadwinner
- Good night stories for rebel girls 1 & 2

We each wrote blurbs or an explanation for the book we chose to display. So those who are interested could know a little bit about the flow of the book and who it is about.

Girl Up decided to put these books on display because they inspired us and we think they are important stories to share.
